LET EVERYBODY COME.

The citizens of Raleigh have invited the State Association of Democratic Clubs to meet in Raleigh Sept. 24th and 25th, and the invitation has been accepted.

Raieigh extends a cordial invitation to every Democrat in the State to be here on that occasion. It has been arranged to give a grand barbecue at the State Fair grounds, to which the whole State is invited. Great speakers will give the feast of reason, and the Raleigh people will furnish a dinner as the staff of life.

Remember the date-September 25th. The clubs meet September 24th. The delegates are all expected then. On the 25th, every Democrat who can leave his home is invited and expected. The doors of Raleigh will be thrown wide open and a cordial greeting given to all.

On this occasion the State campaign will be formally opened, and no Democrat ought to stay away from so great an occasion, if it is possible to be present.

Or ought McIver in the Fourth districts, runlegislation which is responsible for the dates" (self endorsed), the Alliance is of thing is all right to the bond-holder. He lends his money to the farmer at 8 per cent., and often at a larger per cent., and the less money there is in the country the more valuable are his bonds and his money. But it is death to all agricultural sections, and a crime that has nothing to extenuate it.

THE Atlanta Constitution wisely remarks that "the time has now arrived for the friends of CLEVELAND and HILL to cease clawing each other and claw the other fellow." If Democrats will quarrell, let it be in an "off year." When the enemy is in front, it is worse than the same company to fight one another. This applies in North Carolina as well as in New York.

THE PLACE FOR every man who is opposed to the National Election Law is in the Democratic party.-M. L. Morr. son of J. J. Morr, in Iredell County Republican Convention.

HON. ROGER Q. MILLS in a speech in Kentucky attributed the stringent condition of the money market to the Republican policy of protection.

SHALL TIJE SOUTHERN STATES X BECOME PROVINCES?

SPEAKER REED is the exponent of Ropublican thought and aspirations. When this Busy Bull Dog recently went a 'lectioneering in his Congressional District in Maine and exclaimed to his Port-THE BUSINESS OFFICE and Editorial land hearers: "WHEN THE REPUBLICAN PARTY FIRST FALTERED IN ITS GREAT DUTY OF PRESERVING LIBERTY AND EQUALITY BEFORE THE LAW FOR ALL CITIZENS of the should be addressed THE STATE CHRONI- United States a Republican House of Representatives has been rare"-he not only made an historical allusion but he tore away the veil which thinly hides the dark, deep and unlawful deeds of

His historical allusion was to the defeat of BEN BUTLER's force bill in the House of Representatives in 1874-1875. Our readers will recall the gallant services of CHIEF JUSTICE MERRIMON in compassing the death of that highhanded measure.

REED attributes all the subsequent de feats of his party to the fact that BEN BUTLER's force bill failed of passage, and he and President HARRISON have given it out that the LODGE election bill must and shall become the law.

Who that knows the hypocritical cant its passage? Who that has ever looked into the wicked eye and seen the veins beat in the huge, bull neck of T. B. REED, of Maine, can doubt that his ne- | State Convention. farious plan is to crush the South with as ruthless a hand as the Iron Duke did the Netherlands? Congress has postponedathe consideration of the Force bill till after the fall elections.

It then passes.

appointed by a Federal Judge.

To enf ree the machinery of this bill once in the location and construction of the President is given power to call out the a: my and navy. What is the result? A row occurs at the polls—the United States army is called out-blood is spilt. Besides, the matter goes into the Federal courts, and there the white citizen is op-

Another election two years thereafter occurs. The memory of the previous election has not yet faded away. Polls crowded with soldiery. Negroes insolent and emboldened. Cannon and artillery in each commercial centre of the South. The iron hand of the government lent to aid one political party and to crush another. Wives will say to their husbands, and sisters to brothers: "Do not go to the polls to-day. Better to submit to our fate. Better, a thousand times better, that the Republicans of the North shall be in power, by our subjugation. Better even, that the negro, our former slave, shall rule over us, than that you shall endanger your life or your liberty, so dear to us, by asserting a right so obnoxious to the enemies of the

And yet this damnable bill—this bill which even a Democratic Governor of the yankee State of Ohio so hated and despised that he is credited with saying that he would call out all his State troops to resist its enforcement—this bill the State convention of Radicals and negroes in Raleigh recently endorsed, and the white speakers hailed the day when the United States army and navy would be at every available polling place. Such sons of the South as these are Bastards.

If they know the full import of their own acts they would kill their old mother, the State, to rob her dead body of its vestments. We need every Congressman in the coming Congress we can get to stamp out this bill.

Who will be a traitor?

Who will aid our enemies to force the chains which shall shackle and bind us? No self respecting white, man we are persuaded.

White men of North Carolina come out from among them and turn your face to the light!

A SUBSIDIZED PRESS.

It is reported that Gen. ALGER will establed a newspaper to been him for the lacsideacy. In this day of intelligence it will be surprising if Mr. ALGER ·loes not know that the moment any newspaper is suspected of being conducted in the interest of individuals, that mement it loses its prestige and influenc . And there is no way to prevent The people will never and ought never to have confidence in a newspaper that is the organ of any man or the creature or tool of any corporation. Such a newspaper is a disgrace to journalism. The people so regard it and its paid support usually damns the man who buys it.

It will pay GEN. ALGER better to drop his silver dollars in Lake Michigan, or to give them to the negro delegates to the National nominating convention as he did in 1888.

THE National Congress has heard our cry of distress and is trying to come to our relief by the Federal Election Law: Yes, I am in favor of a President who will put a man-of-war in every port from Maine to Florida to see that the law is enforced; and I am further in favor of a and cunning of little Harrison can doubt | President who will put a man with a bayonet at every ballot box, to see the provisions of that law enforced .- STATE SENATOR V. #### KENNEDY ON QUAY.

(Extract from his Speech in the House.)

I do not know whether the charges against the chairman of the National Republican committee are true or false, but I do know that they have been made by journals of character and standing again and again, and I do know that in the face of these charges he has remained silent; has neither sought nor attempted to seek opportunity to vindicate himself against them.

I do know that as a Republican leader he owed it to the great party at whose head he was either to brand them as infamies, or to prove their falsity, or he owed it to the party to stand aside from its leadership.

He has not done either, and for this I denounce him He has failed to justify himself, and though opportunity and ample time have been given him he remains sileut. His silence under such circumstances is simp ly a confession of guilt. An honorable man does not long dally when his honor is assailed. He has delayed too long to justify the belief in his innocence. He stands convicted already before the bar of public opinion. Under such circumstances he should be driven from the head of a party whose life his presence im-

So I say the Republican party has done enough for their pretended leader; let him be relegated to the rear.

It is no longer a question of his vindication, but it is now a question of the life of the party itself.

Better a thousand such should go down to obscurity than that he should be permitted to hang as a mill stone about the party's neck, dragging it down to destruc-
